NOTICEABLE, MEASURABLE & POSITIVE IMPACTS: DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

by A.T. Marshall

Mr. Dawud Muhammad, facilitator of the Domestic Violence Offender Accountability Program— Based on the NYS Batterers Model—have dedicated many nights in the mentoring of men, most of whom referred by social services or other governmental entity, who are in need of guidance and reform. As a major achievement, Mr. Muhammad have successfully graduated more than a dozen participants within the past year, and is on track of successfully graduating more in the upcoming months.

Mr. Dawud Muhammad wears many hats. He is a certified life coach within Juan Garcia Enterprises, certified domestic violence batters facilitator, a My Brother's Keeper Mentor, a minister, a security specialist, and a proud father. Community Fathers, Inc., the City of Schenectady and surrounding areas thank Mr. Dawud Muhammad for making noticeable, measurable and positive impacts in the lives of many, knowingly and unknowingly.
